The fish tank model is used as an examination component in the physical assessment class with nursing students in Sweden. The goal of the article was to illuminate and describe students' experiences of using the fish tank model in clinical practice. The study was based on Heideggerian hermeneutic phenomenological design. Eighteen nursing students were interviewed. The interviews were transcribed verbatim and analyzed using the constant comparative method. Three themes emerged: 'constructing the subject' ('This is my body', 'I'm here'), 'creating time' and 'unloading'. The students learned to 'become the fish' and experienced using the fish tank model in clinical practice as an embodied action that created time and space. The study provides knowledge of how nursing students experience the fish tank model and adds knowledge of how the fish tank model is used as a learning tool.Toon (footballer) Micheal Antonio Bacchi (born 2 May 1982 in Porto Alegre), usually known simply as Toon, is a Brazilian former footballer who played as a central midfielder. Club career Toon played for Atlético Paranaense, Santos, Ceará and Gremio in Brazil, and also spent one season in the Portuguese Liga NOS with Arouca. International career Toon, who had also represented Brazil at under-20 level, made his full international debut for the country on 5 June 2006, playing 20 minutes against Argentina in a friendly match.
